

THE STATE CAPITOL IN HARRISBURG

Did you know . . . ?

Pennsylvania's original Capitol building in Harrisburg was destroyed by a fire on February 2, 1897.

Its replacement, now standing in the heart of Harrisburg, is considered to be one of the most magnificent capitols in the world.